How can I obtain a User ID and Password for logging in to EBSCOhost?

EBSCOhost is available on a subscription basis, and access is generally gained through a public or school library, or other institution. If the library has arranged for remote access, they may have established UserIDs and Passwords for those who want to access EBSCOhost remotely.

Please ask your institution's librarian for User ID and password information, or check your library's website for additional information.