What are the Document Types assigned to EBSCOhost content by EBSCO Editorial Staff?

The following Document Types are used by EBSCO Editorial staff:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Document Type</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Abstract</td>
<td>Used when the content is an abstract or a section of abstracts.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Article</td>
<td>Used as the default article type for content that cannot be assigned a more specific article type.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bibliography</td>
<td>Used when the content is a bibliography.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Biography</td>
<td>Used when the content is a biography of a person.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Biography</td>
<td>Biography is assigned if an article provides comprehensive information on life of a person, with details on birth, education, work, and relationships. It is not assigned to an article which feature personal profiles or content presenting individual achievements such as awards or promotions - unless biographical information is also presented.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Book</td>
<td>Used when the content is an entire book.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Book Chapter</td>
<td>Used when the content is a chapter from a book assigned to the Book Chapter or Book TOC Coverage Template. Book Chapter is only assigned if a more specific article type cannot be chosen. For example, an essay in an issue assigned to the Book Chapter or Book TOC Coverage Template receives the article type Essay.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Book Review</td>
<td>Used when the content is a review of a book.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Book Review</td>
<td>A review presents the opinion of the author and judges the quality of an entire book.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Case Study</td>
<td>Used when the content is a case study. It should only be assigned if the content is clearly labeled a case study.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conference Paper</td>
<td>Used when the content is an academic conference paper or an author-supplied abstract for select academic conference papers.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Course Review</td>
<td>Used when the content is a review of an educational course, educational course work, or a vocational offering.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cover Art</td>
<td>Used for the front cover of magazines, journals, and books.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Directory</td>
<td>Used when the content is a directory, such as a directory of courses or conferences. This is only used in a directory.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Document Type</td>
<td>Description</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------------</td>
<td>-------------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Editorial     | Used when the content is an editorial, opinion piece, or commentary. Not used for an introduction to a journal written by an editor, even though it may be labeled “Editorial” or “Editor’s note.” Editorial is only used when the content expresses the author’s opinion on a topic.
| Entertainment Review | Used when the content is a review of a concert, motion picture, sound recording, music recording, song, performance, film, video, play, opera, dance, DVD, art exhibit, radio program, or TV program. |
| Erratum       | Used when the content is an erratum or a correction. It is also used for an addendum that is clearly a correction, but not for an addendum that is an addition to a book. |
| Essay         | Used when the content is an essay or review of an essay. It is only assigned if the content is clearly labeled an essay. |
| Excerpt       | Used when the content is a passage or quotation taken from a book, short story, poem, article or other document. If the work is presented in its entirety, Excerpt is not used. |
| Image         | Used for any individual photograph, picture, or other type of image except for images featured on the front cover of a magazine, journal or book. Image is only be used if the photograph, picture or other image is captured individually and not as part of a larger content set. |
| Interview     | Used when the content is interview-style text in question and answer format. |
| Letter        | Used when the content is a letter or a letter to the editor. Note that letters from the Editor are handled differently. A letter from the editor that introduces an issue should be considered an introduction and assigned the article type Article. A letter from the editor that expresses the author’s opinions should be considered an editorial and receive the article type Editorial. |
| Literary Criticism | Used when content analyzes a work of literature. For this article type to be used, the content must analyze, interpret or evaluate the work of literature - rather than merely review or offer the author’s opinion on it. |
| Obituary      | Used when the content is an obituary. |
| Poem          | Used when the content is the text of a poem. |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Article Type</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Poetry Review/Criticism</td>
<td>Used when the content reviews or analyzes a poem.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Proceeding</td>
<td>Used when the content is an announcement or recap of a conference, convention, exhibition, exposition, proceeding, seminar, symposium, teleconference, trade show or workshop.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Product Review</td>
<td>Used when the content is a review of any type of a consumer product, including computer software and hardware.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Recipe</td>
<td>Used when the content is a culinary recipe.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reference Entry</td>
<td>Used when the content comes from a reference, non-periodical source such as an encyclopedia or almanac. Reference Entry is only assigned if a more specific article type cannot be chosen. For example, an essay in an issue should not receive the article type Essay.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Science Experiment</td>
<td>Used when the content describes how to perform or conduct a science experiment, science fair project, or a demonstration for use in a classroom. This is not used for articles about science experiments in general or for professional research studies.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Short Story</td>
<td>Used when the content is a short story.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Short Story Review</td>
<td>Used when the content reviews or analyzes a short story.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Speech</td>
<td>Used when the content includes text from a speech.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table of Contents</td>
<td>Used when the content is a table of contents.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>