Why don't I see my search term in a record that is in my result list?

Not all indexed subject terms are displayed on some records but they do get searched by default. EBSCO is very careful about the use of relevant subject terms but if you feel a record is not appropriate to a given search, we encourage you to let us know so we may investigate and correct.